

Sound: oa written as o-e

Learning Objectives: to review a set of letter/sound correspondences; to learn the main ways of spelling the sound /oa/, read these spelling choices in words and sentences and write them in dictated words and sentences

Success Criteria: to read one alternative spelling choice for phoneme /oa/ in words and sentences and to write that choice in dictated words and sentences with 100% accuracy

home

hope

nose

those

spoke

stone

bone

alone

explode

He got in his car to go home.

I hope it is a good book.

Her nose gets red in the winter.

Those plums from the tree are sweet.

The artist spoke to us about his painting.

The stone hit Bert on the arm.